

Claims

- [c1] 1. A system for shutting off residents water supply when occupants are not present comprising:– a shut – off valve for interposition in water main;– a valve controller for said valve;– a connector for connecting to a source of electrical power connected to said valve controller;– a said valve biased to a valve open position;– a system wherein said valve controller is arranged to close said valve when alarm system or manual switch is activated;– a system with optional sprinkler circuit breaker acting to turn water on when sprinkle is on;